Claude: "Regarding the Greek word "koinonia" what are the things in which we share together as the church, according to the Scripture?"

The word koinōnia comes from the adjective koinos ("common, shared") and the verb koinōneō ("to share in, to participate"). In classical Greek it described partnership in a business venture, shared civic life, or marital union — always a tangible bond between persons around something held in common. The New Testament inherits this concreteness. Biblical koinōnia is never mere sentiment or warm feeling; it is always participation in something real, together.

Here is what Scripture identifies as the content of that shared participation:

- Participation in God Himself
- Participation in the Gospel
- Participation in Christ's Body and Blood
- Participation in Suffering
- Participation in Material Life — Radical Generosity
- Participation in Faith
- Participation in the Spirit's Grace-Gifts
- Participation in One Another — Visible Fellowship

Participation in God himself
Father, Son, Spirit — 1 Jn 1:3, 1 Cor 1:9

The church shares together in...

The gospel
Shared labor and commitment — Phil 1:5

Christ's body and blood
The Lord's Supper — 1 Cor 10:16

Suffering
With Christ and each other — Phil 3:10

Material life
Possessions held in common — Acts 2:44

Faith
Communal and effective — Phlm 6

Generous giving
Gift as fellowship — Rom 15:26, 2 Cor 9

Grace-gifts
Given through the body — Rom 12:6

Life with one another
Walking in the light — 1 Jn 1:7

Acts 2:42 — four pillars of church life
Apostles' teaching · koinōnia · breaking of bread · prayer
Koinonia stands alongside Word, Sacrament, and Prayer — not optional

What AI is really good for

- Research of historical context, word study, concordance
- Instantly brainstorm illustrations and outlines

That's a rich and timely theme—and Scripture approaches it from several different angles. Before I build out the full illustration set, let's sharpen the focus a bit so everything lands with precision.

Here are some distinct subthemes within "faith over fear" you could lean into:

- 1. Trusting God in the unknown
(e.g., Abraham leaving home, stepping without full clarity)
- 2. Courage in the face of overwhelming odds
(e.g., David vs. Goliath, Jehoshaphat's army)
- 3. Peace over anxiety
(e.g., "Do not be anxious..." – Matthew 6, Philippians 4)
- 4. Obedience despite fear
(e.g., Peter stepping out of the boat)
- 5. Faith as a response to God's voice, not absence of fear
(fear still present, but not in control)
- 6. Fear as a spiritual obstacle vs. faith as a spiritual weapon
(2 Timothy 1:7, Isaiah 41:10)
- 7. From panic to perspective
(disciples in the storm – "Why are you afraid?")

Each of these leads to very different kinds of illustrations and applications.

👉 Which direction do you want to take?

You can pick one of these, combine a couple, or tell me your passage if you already have one—and I'll build out the full set of illustrations across all 21 categories.

Fear as a spiritual obstacle vs. faith as a spiritual weapon

This frames fear not just as an emotion, but as something that actively resists God's work in us—and faith as something active, decisive, and God-given that overcomes it.

Here are illustrations across all 21 areas, with 2 examples each (and 4 metaphors), plus 2 object lessons:

2) Science

- The amygdala triggers fear responses in milliseconds—but the prefrontal cortex can override it with reasoning. In a sense, your brain is wired for a battle: instinct vs. intentional trust.
- In immunology, the body produces antibodies to fight off invading threats. Fear is like a pathogen; faith functions like a trained immune response that recognizes and neutralizes it.

Fear as a spiritual obstacle vs. faith as a spiritual weapon

4) Art / Music

- In Oceans (Where Feet May Fail), the central image is stepping into uncertainty—faith becomes the means of walking where fear says you'll drown.
- Stand in Your Love explicitly names fear as something that “doesn't stand a chance” when confronted with divine love—faith displaces fear.

6) Literature

- In The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe, the fear of the White Witch keeps Narnia frozen—but faith in Aslan breaks the spell. Fear sustains oppression; faith breaks it.
- In The Hiding Place by Corrie ten Boom, fear is constant under Nazi occupation—but faith becomes the weapon that sustains resistance and compassion.

Fear as a spiritual obstacle vs. faith as a spiritual weapon

9) Quotes

- "Courage is not the absence of fear, but the triumph over it." — Nelson Mandela
- "Do the thing you fear, and the death of fear is certain." — Ralph Waldo Emerson

12) Biblical Parallels

- David vs. Goliath: Fear immobilized an army; faith mobilized a shepherd.
- Jehoshaphat (2 Chronicles 20): Fear came first—then faith responded with worship, and the battle was won without fighting.

13) Current Events

- During global crises (pandemics, wars), fear spreads faster than facts—but communities grounded in hope and trust show greater resilience.
- Stories of first responders repeatedly show individuals moving toward danger while others flee—courage becomes the decisive force.

Dietrich Bonhoeffer

Translate the following quote into English:

Wir sind stumme Zeugen böser Taten gewesen, wir sind mit vielen Wassern gewaschen, wir haben die Künste der Verstellung und der mehrdeutigen Rede gelernt, wir sind durch Erfahrung mißtrauisch gegen die Menschen geworden und mußten ihnen die Wahrheit und das freie Wort oft schuldig bleiben, wir sind durch unerträgliche Konflikte mürbe oder vielleicht sogar zynisch geworden – sind wir noch brauchbar?

“We have been silent witnesses to evil deeds; we have been washed by many waters; we have learned the arts of dissimulation and ambiguous speech; through experience we have grown distrustful of people and have often had to withhold from them the truth and the free word; through unbearable conflicts we have become worn down, or perhaps even cynical—are we still of any use?”

Here is a clear, accessible English translation for readers who speak English as a second language:

We have been silent witnesses to evil actions.
We have been through many difficult experiences.
We have learned how to hide our true thoughts and to speak in unclear ways.
Through experience, we have become distrustful of people,
and we often could not tell them the truth or speak freely.
We have been worn down by unbearable conflicts,
and perhaps we have even become cynical —
are we still useful?

What AI can't do

- Replace the Holy Spirit's guidance in sermon preparation
- Meditate on God's Word
- Wrestle with sin, surrender, humble itself - all attitudes with which we should approach God in preparing a sermon
- Love the church
- Feel conviction, compassion, or spiritual urgency
- Weep over souls / rejoice over transformation

The Development and Delivery of Expository Messages

Haddon W.
Robinson

Biblical Preaching

Expository preaching is "the communication of a biblical concept, derived from and transmitted through a historical, grammatical, and literary study of a passage in its context, which the Holy Spirit first applies to the personality and experience of the preacher, then through him to his hearers."

2 Timothy 1:13-15

13 What you heard from me, keep as the pattern of sound teaching, with faith and love in Christ Jesus. 14 Guard the good deposit that was entrusted to you—guard it with the help of the Holy Spirit who lives in us. 15 Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved, a worker who does not need to be ashamed and who correctly handles the word of truth.

1 Timothy 4:4-6.16

4 For everything God created is good, and nothing is to be rejected if it is received with thanksgiving, 5 because it is consecrated by the word of God and prayer. 6 If you point these things out to the brothers and sisters, you will be a good minister of Christ Jesus, nourished on the truths of the faith and of the good teaching that you have followed.

12 Don't let anyone look down on you because you are young, but set an example for the believers in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith and in purity. 13 Until I come, devote yourself to the public reading of Scripture, to preaching and to teaching. 14 Do not neglect your gift, which was given you through prophecy when the body of elders laid their hands on you. 15 Be diligent in these matters; give yourself wholly to them, so that everyone may see your progress. 16 Watch your life and doctrine closely. Persevere in them, because if you do, you will save both yourself and your hearers.

James 3:1.2

1 Not many of you should become teachers, my fellow believers, because you know that we who teach will be judged more strictly. 2 We all stumble in many ways. Anyone who is never at fault in what they say is perfect, able to keep their whole body in check.

Preach the Word!

2 Timothy 3:16.17

16 All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, 17 so that the servant of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.

Hebrews 4:12

For the word of God is alive and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart.
